

Script Synopsis

Curse of the Raven Clan

Lyla Tarragon comes from a long line of powerful Witches going back centuries. Back in the 18th century a dark group of witches and warlocks called The Raven Clan went after Lyla's ancestors and plagued a dark curse that branded them to be forever hunted by the clan so if a clan member didn't kill them something else would. A female member was always chosen to find the one spell in only book that could break the curse and it changed its hidden location every year. Every member of Lyla's family who tried has failed in death including her mother when she was ten years old. Now at twenty years old Lyla has studied and practiced enough so she could volunteer herself and break the curse once and for all. But this year, one of the most powerful members of the clan Morganna has been chosen to hunt Lyla and get to the spell book before her. Will Lyla win the battle and lift her family's curse? You'll have to watch and find out.

NARRATION

Centuries ago, in the kingdom of Elluminentia,

A map of the kingdom pops up on the screen with names of important locations that will be mentioned later.

NARRATION

There lived several clans of witches that controlled different elements. One clan was granted with the ability to control all elements. They were called the "Tarragon Clan". Each clan used their own abilities to do a particular trade. Everyone in the kingdom was content with this world order.

Crane tracks over an open field with two groups of people on either side. One of the groups is wearing all black with capes and hoods. That group is the Raven Clan. A person from each group walks towards the middle of the field. Cut to close up shot of the one in black.

NARRATION

However, the leader of the Raven Clan that controlled and channeled heat, Amaria, grew jealous and angry. She thought it unjust that only the Tarragon Clan have all powers and considered her clan the superior. She convinced their leader Christella to create a serum that could transfer their powers to other clans.

Close up slow motion shot of Christella reaching her hand whit the serum outward which is rainbow colored liquid in a clear flask, but pauses.

CHRISTELLA

Wait! Our clan was bestowed this gift from the Universe because we promised to heal others not bring harm to them. They are unaware of what you were planning to do with the serum but I can see through your facade. The clans of Aquarius, Airo, and Tierra have stood by in solidarity with my people. They would be ashamed if I go through with this.

Christella swallows the serum. Because she already has these powers, her abilities are not altered.

AMARIA

You have altered the deal and I will not stand for it. You have shamed this kingdom which was founded on civility and cooperation.

CHRISTELLA

How is it civil if you wish to disturb the order in which our ancestors created? The person who is betraying us all is you and your ravens!

AMARIA

If this is how it has to be from today moving forward then so be it.

Amaria's cloak turns into wings but her hood remains intact. She flies up into the air and takes her wand out of her pant pocket. Her hands start to glow red and she strikes her wand up to the sky.

AMARIA

Alternating the seasons,
for centuries to come.
A woman will be sacrificed
And her powers will numb.
Unless they find a cure
before a moon cycle long,
I cast this curse on the Clan of Tarragon.

Red sparks shoot out of Amaria's wand and red lightning flashes across the sky. A war breaks out amongst the clans and people start killing each other and casting spells and curses amongst one another. Explosions, flashes of different colored light beams and people falling to the ground can be seen across the field. While this is happening, narration starts up again.

NARRATION

Though war and pain came to pass as a result of this day, many retreated and survived in order to secure families and legacies in the centuries following.

Members of the two clans start retreating. The sun slowly starts rising.

NARRATION

The curse of the Raven Clan continues its wrath among the Tarragon Clan with many families losing a loved one. However, as time passes the new generations
learn about the history of the curse and the kingdom, they gain more knowledge on how to break the curse.

The sky starts changing color. Fades to black.

EXT. ROADSIDE - DAY

Slow zoom in on Lyla and Karolina walking home from T-Academy. They are two sisters from the Tarragon Clan. Lyla and Karolina both have brown hair but Lyla is older and looks a lot like Emma Watson when she played Belle in "Beauty and the Beast". The school they attend helps them channel and control their magic. They also learn about history, magical plants and creatures that live in Elluminentia. The school is run by members of their clan.

NARRATION

This brings us to today.
